

Saint Germain's Message to Taiwan

Dictation #4

Beloved Saint Germain
Marsha Elaine Covington, Messenger
November 10, 2005 11:30 pm – 11:50 pm
Taipei, Taiwan

I AM Saint Germain, God of Freedom to Taiwan. Hear me, O people of Taiwan. I have come to rescue you from your own self, from that element of the not self which you have, to date, not put down. I have come to free you, O my brothers, O my sisters. I would bring you to a new awareness of your own God identity. The Flame of Freedom that burns right inside your very own chakras is the key to your divinity, beloved hearts. And therefore I would show you the way to open up your own identity pattern—the very specific identity which God has made you in the beginning; the image of YOU, beloved hearts; that identity none other in the entire universes has ever had, has ever held, has ever seen or captured, beloved hearts. You are unique in this cosmos and that identity which you carry contains within it the very element that will set you free.

I AM the God of Freedom and therefore would I teach you my way: the Pure Joy System for being free. Did you know that the God of Freedom of Taiwan carries a special alchemical formula—made special just for you—that will surely catapult you from your current state of awareness into new heights of vision, new colors, new scenery? O beloved hearts, how I wish to show you a cleaner world, a lovelier world filled with more beauty than the colors of the rainbow and even those pastel hues and the intense metallic colors that are for your freedom which we call the Five Secret Rays!

All of this color can be a part of your very personal world right within your aura, even within the third eye. And from there you can see beyond what you see in the physical to discover the celestial bodhisattvas, the celestial Buddhas, and those who live beyond this physical realm. You have seen these depicted in your artwork and in your statuary and in your temples and in the beautiful paintings that depict this faraway world. Well beloved hearts, I can show you how you can see into this world with your very own sight so that it is not just something depicted by an artist who read about or heard about these wondrous paradise worlds. Instead it will be your vision that perceives it. Would you not like to have these worlds right in front of you everyday in your own meditation, beloved hearts?

Well, I can free you from the density that keeps you from seeing, beloved. The God of Freedom to Taiwan would bring you a special alchemical formula made just for you that will open up your awareness and the sensitivity of your chakras. I am come unto your shores beloved, for I would teach you myself. And therefore do I come with my Messengers and I bid them to allow me to speak to you. And come again I will. Open your hearts to me and prepare yourselves to receive me.

O brothers and sisters of Taiwan, I wear a white suit and my aura is filled with a special light of Freedom which I wear everywhere I go, that I might share with all souls on all continents this vibration of Freedom. I do not look like your typical Buddha but I am a Buddha, and I am beyond the Buddhas, for I am a Cosmic Being. I am Freedom itself! And so my artist has depicted me as a human gentleman wearing a white suite and around me the violet color of freedom. And yet you may see me beyond this image. Look into my fiery countenance and see me as a cosmic stream of light—for I do stream across the galaxies as I travel here and there visiting the cosmic emissaries from far off worlds who, come to this world seeking your freedom, beloved.

Did you know that Cosmic Beings hear your prayers and are concerned about your freedom, beloved? Well, many such Cosmic Beings are now coming into the Far East accompanying me and my own beloved twin flame. We come in honor of you! Each and every one who is hearing or reading my message—understand that you hold the cosmic key to our galaxy. Hard to believe and yet it is true. Let us teach you, beloved hearts, of your history and of your future and of freedom. For freedom is THE KEY to your personal victory. The more freedom you can garner unto yourself, the greater will be the effect throughout this cosmos (and more importantly, this planet) of the flame of freedom that will burn brightly here in Taiwan, showing the entire world the power of your creative freedom.

I and my emissaries of Light from far off worlds have come to teach you how to sustain the passion, the fire, the creativity and the love of freedom here on this little island. And as you sustain it for your family, for your community and for your nation, you sustain it for this entire world! Hard to believe that people on other continents desire your freedom and yet, in their inner beings and their hearts, they know that you hold the key to the success of this planetary movement toward freedom. For every soul on this planet is now moving—inch by inch, day by day, night after night—toward the desire for more and more and more light of freedom.

You are not alone, for they all—every one of them—desire more of this light. And so we bring it to you first and we ask that you would learn of it, would love it, would caress it and expand it. My Mother, O Kuan Shih Yin, O Kuan Yin, O Mother of Mercy—she has been accelerating this Light of Freedom within this soil and your very hearts for eons, beloved. And now I do join forces with my mother to expand a great conflagration of that fire of freedom. And how will you know it? By the desire that wells up within you to be free, to be more beautiful, more loving, more kind, more giving, more exacting and more excellent at everything you do. This is soul freedom and have you not felt a great desire for more of this very element of life, beloved?

You must learn to recognize that feeling of desire as freedom, for it will cut you free and it will be THE KEY to the freedom of this hemisphere and the entire Far East region. Therefore do we come. Look for us in the lavender sky. In the violet aura, in the pink and even in the purple you will see us. See the acceleration now of this light of the violet transmuting flame which I bring. Begin to see it expand everywhere throughout this nation, for I will bring it into your market place, into your fashions, into your household items and onto your streets. Everywhere will you begin to see the acceleration of these colors.

Think of me—the God of Freedom to Taiwan, Saint Germain—and also Kuan Yin—whenever you see this expression of soul freedom. We come with open hearts and with open hands to give you the proffered gift. Won't you receive us and learn of us, for we have walked the sorrowful way which you walk today, and would give you the key for the overcoming of every burden and every block in the way.

Be thou made whole and feel now the Light of God within your very breast.