

Saint Germain's Message to the People of Taiwan

Dictation #2

Beloved Saint Germain
Marsha Elaine Covington, Messenger
November 8, 2005 10:13 pm – 10:35 pm
Taipei, Taiwan

Saint Germain Speaks Directly to the People of Taiwan— I AM the God of Freedom to Taiwan

Come, ye who labor, and I will give you rest. Freedom. Surcease from the meanderings of your mind in meaningless traversing across a cosmos looking for all manner of ways to cease the dark thoughts, the fearful consciousness, which you carry day in and day out, beloved. This is the carnal mind. This is the human condition. This is normal for those on earth who have yet to transcend their human consciousness. And so you seek here and there for another answer, another way, another marble for the game of life.

Well, I am here, beloved ones, to tell you that this game can be won by you and that every answer you seek is within you, beloved hearts. Rise up to know your own divinity. Right within you is everything you seek to understand, to become. All that you yearn for can be found right inside your own heart, beloved.

I am here to deliver a message that is needed by everyone who lives on this island: Freedom is your key, beloved hearts. And though you live for freedom and in the sea of a free economy and a free government and freedom of thought and freedom of speech and the freedom to project your beliefs into any religion, you must understand how fragile is this egg. This cosmic egg, which appears to be so strong because you enjoy it so much, can crack at any time, beloved ones. Listen to me! For I AM the God of Freedom to this planet and beyond and I have found the ultimate freedom, for I have paid the price, beloved hearts.

Each one who seeks to escape from meandering in this maze of life must pay the ultimate price. And that price is freedom from attachment to the things of this world. Give it up, beloved hearts, for it is suffocating you. The desire for material possessions is clogging this island. It is clouding your air. It is clouding your mind. It is clogging up the airways and the byways and the ability even to see, beloved hearts. Give it up, for true freedom is soul freedom, and soul freedom is that which allows you to transcend all desire for fulfillment on this earth.

Psychologically, you who live on this island are clutching onto capitalism and the material plane in the hope that this will buy you those freedoms which you so desire and which cannot be attained in the Communist state. Well you misunderstand, beloved, that it is not the material possessions that make you free, it is freedom herself. For freedom is a flame. It is a being. It is a cosmic consciousness.

Freedom is the releasing—the releasing—the release of the self from any and all attachments. This is true freedom! And truly those who sought the ultimate freedom for your people, for all of the people of China, were willing and able to surrender all attachment to this plane of consciousness. And they did let it go in favor of a principle, a fire, a deeper meaning to life. Revere those who have sacrificed on your behalf and realize that a commitment to freedom means that each one within this island must surrender certain aspects of self and hold on fast to certain other aspects, such as the willingness to stand on principle no matter what the cost. No matter what gets projected at you, no matter what the threat, you will never submit—that is the ultimate requirement for freedom within this nation.

Truly you are a nation, a nation of hearts united for a major goal—the freedom of all people within the race of Chin. And yet I tell you, and I do prophecy this night, that you will find your freedoms diminishing unless you take up a major action toward the protection of those freedoms within the mind, within the heart, within the sinews of being. You will discover that there are those who would sooner betray you than hold you in the light of the God of Freedom. Be aware. Be alert. Be active. Seek to understand. Turn over every stone and look deeply inside every argument that is presented by your government or the opposition party, or the United States government, or any country, including China.

Seek to understand. And I offer you my own heart's understanding for your journey, for I would become the God of Freedom to Taiwan. I would become your God. Seek me. Find me. Call to me and listen inside. Deep inside of you, you will find me reflecting back upon your divinity the true essence of being, the true culture that this people deserves, and the true word and voice of the God of Freedom, which can become the voice for your nation and for a world. We need you to be free, to become free, to yearn for freedom and to ascend to the heights of the freedom angels. Become angels of freedom to an entire planet, beloved hearts. And I will assist you. I will be with you. I and thousands upon thousands upon millions of thousands of my angels will come and assist you, hold you up in the light of freedom, accelerate your consciousness and move you to the next plane of being. Hold fast what thou hast received! And let it not die for lack of appreciation, beloved hearts.

I bless this people with the gift of the violet, transmuting, joyous singing fire of God Himself, God Herself. Blaze now that flame, O angels who have come with me. Release that fire of divinity into this earth, into the island itself, into the air—and free it. O freedom, blaze through the air molecules in this city and this nation. Into the water within and without we do penetrate with the fire—the sacred fire—beloved. Yes, fire and water can commingle and it is done in this moment. It is done. Into the fire itself—the fire as the electronic energy which holds this island together—and into your own hearts beating as one—we place the violet flame which represents freedom, which brings freedom and which frees you from the intensity of the darkness which is projected upon you night and day by those who would steal away your light manifestations.

NOW we break the curse! O fire descend! O purple flame. O violet flame. O pink finishing flame, finish the work of the transmutation of evil projected upon this free nation!

Into the land, into the air, into the water, and through the fire comes now our gift to you. Remember and be grateful. And in your gratitude, pray beloved. Beloved hearts pray to me, for I would walk these streets. I would be with you in your meditations, in your contemplations, in your incense burning. In your meetings, in your businesses and in your government buildings, I would be there. Call to me, the God of Freedom, and I will descend in flaming clouds of glory to free you, beloved. For freedom is my name. And so, if you do not remember the name of Saint Germain, call instead to Freedom and I will answer:

O Freedom! Come Freedom.
O starry Freedom! Come starry Freedom,
O heart of Freedom! O come heart of Freedom,
O loving Freedom! O loving Freedom, come!
O Freedom of the Buddhic light! Descend, O Buddhic Freedom,
Come where we are and manifest your gracious gifts.
O Freedom! Be my heart! Be our God! Free our people!
O Freedom, descend!

Pray this prayer and I will make you whole. I will bring the healing you seek and I will protect the precious oil of joy within you.

O make it known and proclaim it across the galaxies: “We are free! We are a free nation. And our freedom is worth everything!”

The pearl of great price—there is none other, beloved friends of freedom. Hold fast what thou hast received and never let it go, no matter the cost. And I will never leave you bereft of the greatest gift the world has ever known.

I descend now into the bowels of the earth underneath this island and release fire into the rock. Let it burn through and consume ages of darkness that keep these people bound. I free this land this night.<sup>i</sup>

Call to me on the morrow for another miracle light to descend unto this island and into this people.

Amen!<sup>ii</sup>

---

<sup>i</sup> The Messenger saw Saint Germain descend underneath the ocean and the rock that is the foundation for the island. With arms outstretched, he poured through his hands tremendous fire for the purging of the darkness that has been projected upon the island of Taiwan.

<sup>ii</sup> At the end of his dictation, Saint Germain asked our team to give the “Miracle Mantra” for Taiwan. The Messenger lead the Mantra, inserting into each line the needs of the people of Taiwan. The next day, in the third dictation of this series, Saint Germain asked us to write a new decree called “The Miracle Mantra for Taiwan.”